

PRIVACY TRADE-OFFS

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY
School of Information Studies

PRIVACY TRADE-OFFS

Privacy vs. security

Privacy vs. free speech

Privacy vs. convenience

SECURITY OR PRIVACY?

FREE SPEECH OR PRIVACY VIOLATION?

What do you think about a website that has photos of doctors who perform abortions?

<http://abortiondocs.org/clinic/abortionist/991302/diane-horvath-cosper/>

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying the AbortionDocs.org website. The page header includes the site name and a navigation menu. A sidebar on the right lists statistics: Surgical Abortion Clinics (500), Abortionist MD Clinics (197), Abortionists (985), and Documents (7783). The main content area is titled "DIANE HORVATH COSPER" and features a profile picture, a quote, and a "RH Reality Check" link. Below this, there are sections for "ABORTION MILL", "MEDICAL SCHOOL", "PHONE NUMBER", and "ADDRESS". A map shows the location at 110 Irving St, Ste 5B-45, Washington, DC 20019. The "OTHER INFO" section lists various affiliations and social media links, including District of Columbia license verification, State of MD and MN license verifications, LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter, and various news outlets like USNews.com and NPI.

FORMS: CONVENIENCE OR PRIVACY?

How do you feel when you fill out web forms?

All Fields are required.

Salutation: --Select One-- ▾

First Name:

Last Name:

Title:

Company:

What type of business do you work for?: --Select One-- ▾

Email:

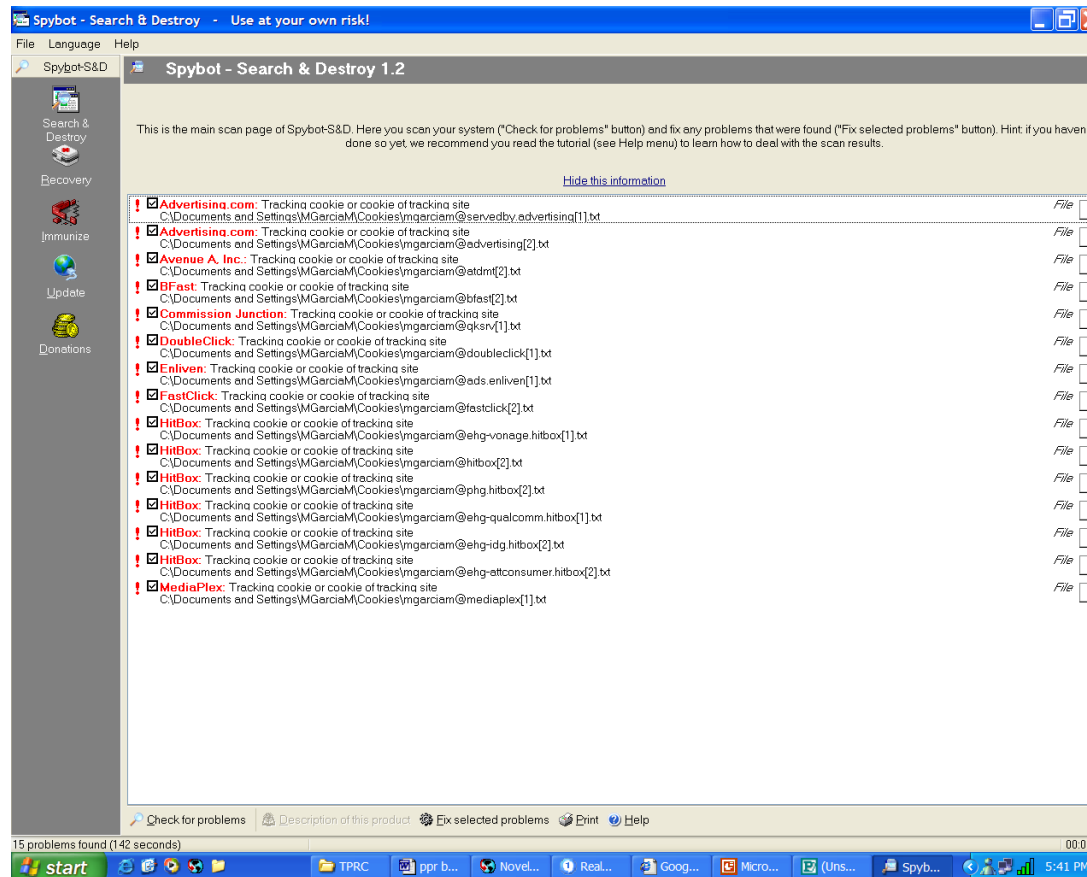

Phone:

What is your purchasing timeframe?: --Select One-- ▾

How did you hear about us: --Select One-- ▾

Please have a salesperson contact me immediately.

“COOKIES”: CONVENIENCE OR PRIVACY?

<http://deploy.syr.edu:8080/ramgen/thmartin/spyware.rm>